

Simplify Being An Employer With IN PHCC & Human Capital Concepts

Your Certified PEO For Worry-Free HR, Benefits, Payroll and Compliance from an experienced leader in personalized HR services.

Running a business takes courage and a lot of hard work. You make important decisions every day. Choosing a professional employer organization (PEO) solution is a wise decision that gives you an easier, more affordable way to add HR expertise and support for your business.

Your Indiana Plumbing–Heating–Cooling Contractors Association is collaborating with Human Capital Concepts (HCC), a Hoosier owned and headquartered Human Resources company, to provide business owner members with HR support and solutions that remove employment headaches, and the day-to-day HR processes, paperwork, and potential pitfalls that can challenge business owners that distract them from focusing on growth.

HCC Is An Indiana PEO.

HCC's PEO is "sleep insurance" for your business.

- We manage the changing employment laws for you.
- We ensure you're fully removed from any payroll tax liability, including all federal, state and local employment taxes.
- We provide great payroll, benefits, HR and employee life cycle technology to meet employee expectations.
- You stay focused on running your business with our dedicated team of Indiana-based HCC HR experts for your company.
- Create a company culture to assist in attracting and retaining the best people to optimize your organization's performance.

IN PHCC Association Members Now Have An Indiana Choice For HR.

As a member of the largest trade association representing Indiana's professional plumbing heating-cooling contractors and affiliated suppliers and manufacturers, you can choose an HR partner, certified by the IRS, to provide payroll, benefits, risk and compliance, and much more so you can focus on your business.

Indiana PHCC Association Members receive a "Members Only" special offer with HCC's PEO.

- One free month of administrative fees.
- Ability to participate in 2 live HR Compliance training webinars for free.
- Partner with an Associate Member of the Indiana PHCC Association who understands the employment needs of your business.
