

Plumbing Apprenticeship

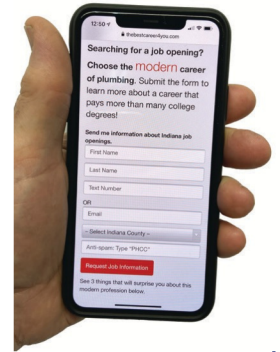

HOW DOES IT WORK?

RESEARCH
INPHCC.com is a great place to start your research.

REACH OUT
to PHCC contractors to ask about apprentice positions & apply for employment. You must be sponsored by a licensed plumbing contractor to become an apprentice. Find a contractor at www.inphcc.com

FUN FACT: Earn while you learn! Apprentices are employed full-time at their respective shops & complete apprenticeship classroom hours around their full-time schedule.

START YOUR CAREER
and work with your contractor to establish the best time for you to start your apprenticeship.

BEGIN APPRENTICESHIP
with your employer as your sponsor and start attending classes to reach the 576 required hours.

TRACK
7600 on-the-job (OJT) hours as you work full-time for your employer.

FUN FACT: Apprentices get the best of both worlds with academic, classroom learning and on-the-job practical learning to help reinforce important plumbing concepts.

COMPLETE YOUR APPRENTICESHIP and receive your DOL certificate.

APPLY
to take the Indiana journeyman exam and work hard to get a passing grade.

GET YOUR JOURNEYMAN LICENSE to begin earning competitive wages.
